

NEWSLETTER

December 1st, 2023

Week 13: Welcome to Winter

Quote of the week: "Winter isn't a season, it's a celebration." - Anamika Mirsha

This year, we are so excited to have our 8th-10th graders interviewing and gathering information for our newsletter! Here's what they found:

Survey from Week 13...

-Favorite Christmas Songs-

Some of our favorite holiday songs include: Santa's Coming to Town, Jingle Bells, Deck the Halls, Away in the Manger, Rudolph the Red Nosed Reindeer, Silent Night, Let it Snow, Carol of the Bells, Run Run Rudolph, and All I Want For Christmas is You.

-Favorite Christmas Traditions-

Some of our favorite Christmas traditions include: celebrating Jesus's birth, opening presents, seeing family, the Parade of Lights, looking at Christmas lights, and decorating a Christmas tree.

-What We Learned This Week-

Kindergarten learned about how not to be on the naughty list. 2nd- 4th learned about how to divide, and what arrays are. 5th- 8th learned about the French and Indian War. 9th and 10th learned about graphing and more about the Civil War.

A Special Look at Our Awesome Students!

Upcoming Events:

- December 2 – GJ Parade of Lights @ 5:00pm
- December 3 – Pancake Breakfast @ 8-10am
- December 14 – Christmas Program @ 6:30pm
- December 18th-Jan 1 - No School (Christmas Vacation)

